

VULTURE

AGENDA | UPDATED FEB. 18, 2020

13 Great Things to Do in New York

By Vulture Editors

To Do: February 19–March 4

Our biweekly guide to cultural events in New York City.

MOST VIEWED STORIES

1. Why Do Corporations Speak the Way They Do?
2. I Was a Hollywood Assistant and I Got Yelled at on the Toilet
3. Everything We Know About Pop Smoke's Death
4. Bong Joon Ho on Why He Wanted Parasite to End With a 'Surefire Kill'
5. Trump Is Angry That Parasite Won Best Picture Instead of Gone With the Wind

Photo: Joan Marcus/Yoyo_Ma/Twitter/Marco Borggreve/Magnolia Pictures

Art

1. See Souls Grown Diaspora

Leaving the rural South.

Artist Sam Gordon curates a generation of lesser-known visionary African-American artists and heirs to the struggles, joys, and sorrows of the 20th century's Great Migration. A show sprung from love without a false note. — Jerry Saltz

Apexart, 291 Church Street, through March 7.

Classical Music

2. Hear Kirill Gerstein

Keyboard master.