Mixology

An installation by Christine Siemens

March 18 - April 17, 1999

Opening reception: Wednesday, March 17, 6-8 pm

Dave Hickey presents "Mixology," a show of recent sculpture and drawings by Las Vegas-based artist Christine Siemens. The central piece of the installation is a light-activated, kinetic, eleven-planet, disco-ball solar system. Patterns of light move slowly across the planets and walls of the gallery in an unending stream along with a faint track of an over-amplified car sound system recorded from the exterior. This work will be supplemented by a large, blood-red, glistening, rubber-coated, canvas wall-sculpture, a scaled-up 3-D copy of an early 20th-century Japanese textile pattern of a Chrysanthemum spiralling towards infinity, and four large, silver-foiled potatoes.

A brochure containing an essay by Dave Hickey will be available free of charge.

Please contact Apex Art for further information.

Hours are Tuesday to Saturday, 11-6.
