Errant Gestures: Visual and Verbal Correspondences

Curated by:
Susette Min

September 7 - October 7, 2000

Opening reception: Saturday, September 9, 6-9 pm

JonMarc Edwards, You Are The Figure..., 1991

Errant Gestures: Visual and Verbal Correspondences explores how select artists reveal, defamiliarize, or create manifold language systems in and through different media. At first glance, each of the artists seem to engage in a detournement; where words and images, different media languages, seem to collide and press against each other without systematic progression. Upon closer inspection, each of the artist's process reveals a sustained commitment to the structure and texture of particular language systems. Errant Gestures presents the works of Janet Cohen, JonMarc Edwards, Rie Hachiyonagi, Mark Lombardi, Andrea Ray, and Kay Rosen whose art becomes the rupture or surplus of how we read, hear, and view visual and verbal correspondences.

September 27, at 7 pm: Susette Min will discuss screened videos by Theresa Hak Kyung Cha and Leslie Thornton with Lawrence Rinder and Ms. Thornton.

A brochure containing an essay by Susette Min is available free of charge.
